What are sponsors say...

“ Investing in critical skills development and training for the next generation of local leaders and technical experts, with a focus on inclusion and diversity, drives our partnership with the Georgia Fintech Academy. The program delivers on student engagement, early-career recruiting, education, and mentorship opportunities.

Patrick Williams
VP of Strategic Initiatives at Visa

“ We're always striving to be the change for our 3Cs - colleagues, clients, and communities - and that includes fostering a more diverse workforce. Our partnership with the Georgia Fintech Academy provides us the opportunity to drive that agenda forward while also helping us develop the next generation of fintech leaders that not only challenge the norm, but are inclusive, fair, and equitable.
